3. The only additional cost involved in these proposals will be a recurring one of Rs.200/- per mensem by way of rent for the 10 Station Houses and a non-recurring one of Rs.3100/- towards the cost of furniture and stores. Considering the better results that will be achieved by the opening of these station houses, the Board requests that the Government may be pleased to accord sanction for (1) the opening of the 10 station houses mentioned above, (2) for payment of a rent at a rate not exceeding Rs.30 per mensem for each station house and (3) for the purchase of stores and furniture at a sum not exceeding Rs.310 for each station house.

4. The strength of Guards for each station house has invariably been 12 in all the districts. But the 10 station houses proposed to be opened can have only 6 guards each from the Coastal and Patrol parties. The additional guards necessary for the station houses will be found by withdrawing from other light station house or station houses, so that the Government may not be put to any extra cost by way of additional staff.

5. Where the Border and Coastal patrol parties are under the charge of Assistant Prohibition Officers the assignment of ~~specific jurisdiction to them will necessitate~~ certain adjustments specific jurisdiction to them will necessitate certain adjustments in the jurisdiction of Assistant Prohibition Officers and incident-al changes in the headquarters of some of the Assistant Prohibition Officers will also be necessary. The proposals are detailed below:

The Board requests that these proposals may be approved.

6. While submitting his proposals on the subject, the Deputy Commissioner, Prohibition (Enforcement), North has recommended also the following changes in jurisdiction and redistribution of staff.

(1) The Cheepurupalli Taluk is now included in the jurisdiction of Bobbili Circle. As this taluk is more accessible from Srikakulam circle and as it will be easier to control the crime in the Taluk if it is included in the jurisdiction of Srikakulam, the taluk may be added on to the jurisdiction of Srikakulam.

(2) One of the 2 Striking Force parties stationed at Eluru may be shifted to work under the control of the Deputy Prohibition Officer, Narasapur.

The Board recommends that the proposals of the Deputy Commissioner may be approved.
